

Spider-Man Brand New Day

Date Watched	01 Aug 2026
Poster	 The poster features Spider-Man in his iconic red and blue suit, floating in the air with his arms outstretched. Below him, a group of enemies in red suits and black masks are attacking with swords. The background is a hazy, orange-tinted cityscape. At the bottom, the text reads: "MARVEL STUDIOS SPIDER-MAN BRAND NEW DAY EXCLUSIVELY IN CINEMAS COMING SOON".
Notes	Meh. I mean, it is a good movie – but it feels like the movie ends and another half of a movie was tacked on to the end. It felt more like it was a functional component than a story. It was bridge between one generation of the franchise and another.
